THE HOLY SCRIPTURES

LESSON TEXT—II Tim. 3:14-17; Ps. 19:7-14.

GOLDEN TEXT—Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Our Bible.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Our Bible.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why Read the Bible?

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—What the Bible is For.

I. The Scriptures Are Divinely Inspired. (II Tim. 3:16).

The first thing to be settled concerning the Canonical Scriptures is their inspiration and authority. In the Scriptures God is at "sundry times and in divers manners" speaking to man (Heb. 1:1). Paul in this passage declares them to be "God breathed," meaning that the utterances of Holy Writ were God's breath in men's mouths. The Holy Scriptures do not merely contain the Word of God, but are in verity the message of God to men.

The main cause of the moral breakdown of society is that men have been robbed of their faith in the Bible as the authoritative message from God.

II. The Value of the Scriptures (II Tim. 3:14-17).

1. Able to make wise unto salvation (v. 15).

Salvation is in Christ alone. It is secured through faith in His finished work on the cross. True wisdom leads to Christ crucified, since there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved (Acts 4:12), and without the shedding of blood there is no remission (Heb 9:22).

2. Disciplines the life (vv. 16, 17).

In this "doctrine" is set forth the necessary standard of conduct. The only place to find the teaching of God is in His Holy Word. It not only sets forth a standard of life, but it reproves—confutes error. The way to deal with error is not by denunciation but with a positive presentation of truth. The Word corrects (sets straight the dislocutions of personal and social conduct), instructs in righteousness, and equips for service

III. The Nature and Effects of God's Law (Psa. 19:7-11).

1. Perfect.

It is without flaw; converts and restores the soul; turns man back to holiness and to God.

2. Sure.

It is absolutely dependable. God cannot lie. Man's reasoning changes but God's Word endures forever. It makes wise the simple. Not only does it makes wise unto salvation, but wise regarding the legitimate things of this world.

3. Right.

The precepts and judgments of the Lord are expressions of absolute righteousness. They fill the believer with rejoicing.

4. Pure.

There is in it no mixture of error It makes no compromise with that which is untrue. Because of this it enlightens the eyes.

5. Clean.

The Word affects the life. Its cleansing is from within and from without

6. True and righteous.

The decisions of God's Word are true, without exception. The judgments of God's Word are unimpeachable. Because of these qualities God's Word is more to be desired than the choicest gold. Obedience thereto brings great reward.

IV. The Prayer of the Believer (Psa 19:12-14).

The life brought face to face with God's Word is seen as sinful. The soul cries out for

1. Cleansing (v. 12.)

The perfect laws reveal the imperfections of the life. The Word of God reveals sins of which the individual may be ignorant (Isa. 6:5).

2. To be kept from presumptuous sin (v. 13).

Presumptuous, arrogant sins are peculiarly dangerous. In the Mosaic economy no sacrifice was provided for such sins.

3. Freedom from the dominion of such sins' (v. 13).

How awful is the slavery of those who are in bondage to presumptuous sins.

4. That the words of the mouth and meditation of the heart be kept acceptable in God's sight. From how many dangers the believer would be freed if the words and meditations of the heart were kept in line with the Holy Scriptures.

Our Possessions

I will place no value on anything I have or possess, except in its relation to the Kingdom of Jesus Christ —David Livingstone.

Let It Rather Be Healed

Lift up the hands that hang down and the feeble knees; and make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.—Heb 12:12, 13.

Hopelessness of Hypocrisy

For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul? Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him? Job 27:8, 9.

Woodland

There has been no news from our section of the county, but we are still on the map.

School is progressing nicely, but attendance is small on account of sickness in the neighborhood.

Mr. W. W. Woodson and daughter, Miss Bernice, spent Sunday in Lynchburg recently.

Mrs. C. R. Woodson is on sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harvey of Dillwyn, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Cheatham recently.

Miss Hamner Coleman of Lynchburg, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Coleman.

Messrs. Clyde Jackson and Billy Carter of Red House, Houston Reams of Phenix, Russell Woodson, Misses Mary and Virginia Woodson and Mildred Marshall were Sunday afternoon guests of Misses Celene, Dorothy and Beatrice Woodson.

Miss Dorothy Woodson is at home from Harrisonburg S. T. C., convalescing from flu.

Miss Virginia Woodson expects to enter Peabody college, Nashville, first of February.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Marshall were visitors in the home of C. R. Woodson Sunday.

Mrs. Berkley Nash is in Lynchburg with baby Lyle, where she is expecting to have his tonsils removed.

Mr. and Mrs. Witt Harvey of Red House, were Sunday guests at the home of W. L. Coleman.

FOREST VIEW

Sunday was a real winter day snow and hail awhile rain and freeze awhile which all combined made a real sleet this morning. It has been said, a lot of sleet a good crop and fruit year. We hope it may prove true.

Mrs. T. H. Ford is still confined to her room and a part of the time in bed, we hope she will soon recover, as she has been sick several weeks.

Mrs. J. W. Davis of Spring Mill, is in a bad condition. She has erysipelas of the head and her suffering is great, we hope she will soon get relief. She has a nurse with her.

Master Thomas Odor is well enough to attend school after being very sick for several weeks with deep cold.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Sims and two daughters, Nellie and Ethel, Mrs. Loyd Nash of Lynchburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lee spent Sunday in the home of R. W. Martin Mrs. Loyd Nash accompanied by Miss Nellie Sims visited her three children at the home of T. J. Nash Sunday.

We hope the family of Mr. Daniel Cawthorn is letter. Several down at the same time and at this home Mesdames Sallie and Annie Cawthorn cannot walk a step and have been confined to their beds for over a year.

Mr. J. R. Ford of Appomattox visited his parents Sunday.

We are so sorry to hear of the illness of our faithful mail carrier, Mr. Dell Howerton. Hope he will soon be able to resume his duties, as he is greatly missed.

Those who lost in the fire at Appomattox have the sympathy of their friends.

Mrs. W. D. Doss

Mrs. W. D. Doss died at her home in Lynchburg, January 21st. She had been in bad health for a year. On the following day she was laid to rest by the side of her husband in the family cemetery at Old Concord church. She leaves to mourn their loss, one brother—Bill Williamson, and the following children—Russ, Edgar, Emmett, Albert, Oscar, Mrs. Tom Ferguson, Mrs. Labe Woolridge, Miss Ellen Doss of Lynchburg. Flower-bearers were her grand children.

Pall-bearers were: Harry Ferguson, Lyle Woolridge, J. W. Parker, Leonard, H. M. and T. M. Doss.

All was done for her that loving hands could do, but God knew best and took this mother home to rest. X.

Another Change Noted

The effort to keep straight used to be a moral struggle instead of a diet. San Francisco Chronicle.

Cleaning Lace

Silver lace may be rejuvenated by cleaning with gasoline or alcohol with a brush. It may also be cleaned by washing in salt water, using two tablespoonfuls salt to each pint of water.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Benefit in Sharing

What an argument in favor of social connections is the observation that by communicating our grief we have less, and by communicating our pleasure we have more.—Greville.

Music of Instruments

Antonio Stradivari of Cremona Italy, who brought the craft of violin making to its highest pitch of perfection (1670-1737), also made some beautiful violoncellos and violas.

Statement of the Ownership, Management, Circulation, Etc., Required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912

Of The Times-Virginian published weekly at Appomattox, Va., for October 1, 1928.

STATE OF VIRGINIA
County of Appomattox, ss

Before me a Notary Public, in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared A. H. Clement who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the owner and editor of The Times-Virginia and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in sections 411, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:

1 That the name and address of the publisher, editor, and business manager is A. H. Clement, of Appomattox, Va.

2 That the owner is A. H. Clement, of Appomattox, Va.

3 That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are none.

4 That the two paragraphs next above giving the name of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiants full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as stated by him.

A. H. Clement, Owner.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 24th day of January 1929.

SLAYER WHO FEARED KISS IS GIVEN LIFE

Youth Is Sent to Prison for Killing Girl.

New York.—The seventeen-year-old murderer, who was afraid of a kiss, has been sentenced to prison for life. He is Vincent T. Rice, a Staten Island boy, and he slew his fifteen-year-old sweetheart, Alice Joost, when she asked him for a kiss.

Having heard two alienists express their opinion that the boy's act was committed under the influence of an insane terror of intimacy with girls —probably the effect of a too intensive religious training on a backward mind and an undeveloped sexual instinct— Justice Selah B. Strong allowed the boy to change his plea from not guilty to guilty of murder in the second degree.

The opinion of these two mental experts corroborated the statement Rice had made in his signed confession, that the murder was unpremeditated, as a result of his exaggerated horror of a kiss which he said Alice Joost offered to give him.

Breaks Down and Weeps.

Rice, a pale, good-looking boy neatly dressed in a brown suit and maroon tie, who had sat stolidly chewing gum and leaning on his hand during the taking of testimony, showed his first sign of emotion when, after the courtroom had been cleared, he suddenly began to weep on his brother's arm.

After Medical Examiner George Mord had described the condition in which he found the body of Miss Joost the night of November 2, Mrs. Lucille Joost, mother of the dead girl, a white-haired woman all in black, calmly told how, when she returned to her home that evening, she found her daughter's body across the bed in her room, with a gash on her forehead and a piece of electric light wire tightly twisted around her throat.

Then Rice's confession, signed the day after the murder, was read. In it Rice told of his afternoon with Alice in the Joost home, how they sang and played the piano, how, at dusk, Alice tried to kiss him, and asked him to "be a good sport"; how her actions and words filled him with uncontrollable anger, how he struck her down and then, overcome with fear, strangled her with wire.

Afraid of Kiss.

Then came the scientific description of Rice as a young man deeply repressed sexually, afraid of girls, afraid that to kiss them might cause him serious physical harm, who reacted with terrible violence when a girl offered him a caress.

Dr. George H. Kirby, an alienist of 1111 Park avenue, engaged by the boy's family, was called to the stand. He had examined Rice in jail, he said, and found him constitutionally inferior.

"Do you think," asked the district attorney, "that this murder was premeditated?"

"No, in my opinion. It was not," Doctor Kirby testified. "I took upon his whole act as impulsive and unpremeditated."

Q.—How did the defendant explain his act to you? A.—He said he had struck the deceased in order to protect his honor and preserve his health.

Q.—How would you describe the defendant's life? A.—It was one of intense repression. I attribute this to his religious training and the home influence.

Doctor Kirby went on to explain that Rice had had epileptic fits from the age of one to four, and that these had apparently resulted in his being mentally and sexually retarded. Some where, he said, the boy had acquired a real fear of intimacy with girls which would explain his abhorrence of kissing. His confession was truthful, the girl attempted to kiss him.

Air-Traffic Cops Make 219 Arrests in Year

Washington.—Air-traffic cops have made 219 arrests without a single complaint that the aerial bluecoats were sleeping on their posts.

Fifty inspectors of the Department of Commerce air regulations division, charged with arresting and prosecuting air-traffic violators, have been on the job throughout the country for more than a year.

Sixty-five of the offenders drew fines of $10.00 to $5.000 for their offenses, while 116 were reprimanded. One hundred ninety-five cases have come up for hearing since the division was organized.

Charges included landing in unauthorized sections, low flying over congested areas, stunt flying with passengers aboard and carrying explosives.

Princess Gets Tortoise From Japanese Diplomat

London.—A valuable tortoise, a present from a Japanese diplomat, is the latest pet of little Princess Elizabeth, daughter of the duke and duchess of York. The tortoise has markings of red and orange, denoting its aristocratic pedigree and has been named "Madame Butterfly." One of the first things the little princess does on getting up in the morning is to go into the garden and feed her tortoise its cabbage leaf.

Serious Problem

One crying need of the day seems to be a method of disposing of old automobiles. So many have been dumped secretly on vacant lots in the Bronx that the board of trade is discussing the problem.

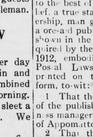
An Oklahoma Mother Says:



"BLACK-DRAUGHT is a fine medicine to give to children. I use it for mine whenever I need to give them a laxative. They like it and mind taking it when I make it into a tea, and it quickly relieves constipation and the bad symptoms which come from it. I can recommend it to other mothers, for I have found it useful in my home.

"When I was a child my mother gave it to me whenever I complained of not feeling well. I have always taken it for upset stomach and constipation. It is about the only medicine I have to take. A few doses of Black-Draught, now and then, keep my system in order. My husband takes it, too. I hardly see how I could keep house without Black-Draught. It has become a standby with us, in keeping the children and ourselves well."—Mrs. Luther Brassfield, Claremore, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Harvey and son, Thomas, and Miss Katie Mitchell of Lynchburg, spent Sunday with parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Mitchell.

A small fire this morning was discovered in the main administration building of the High School here within the ceiling on the top of first stairway. No one knows how it started. Prof. Conway ordered all pupils to vacate the building, which was done in 2 minutes. By the use of fire extinguishers, close at hand, the Principal quickly extinguished the flames—after pulling down some of ceiling so as to get to the flames. No damage, no one hurt and not more than 10 minutes time was lost from study. The children love their fire drills and in case fire they are marched out orderly before they realize any danger.

Let us have your next order for printing. Quick work.

In Trouble

Friday night about midnight Don Davidson is charged with entering the sleeping room of the daughters of Mr. Wily Smith near Evergreen. Don entered the room by means of a ladder, and the oldest girl of 13 years struck a match and recognized him as he left the room. Next morning Sheriff McKinney and others tracked the darkey to his home near by and he was arrested and had an examination before Justice Steel, who sent him on to the grand jury. At the preliminary hearing the negro is said to have confessed that it was he who entered the room. His explanation was that he wanted to see about work.

The darkey has been living at Hixburg and around Evergreen for a number of years. He is certainly in trouble of a very serious nature.

Don has also confessed it is said to robbing the store of C. T. Evans of about $25.00 in goods.

To Hospital

Sergt. A. J. Hubbard, U. S. A., retired, was taken to Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, D. C., by his physician, Sunday P. M. for medical treatment. Sergt. Hubbard is an uncle of J. W. Coleman, W. T. Coleman, P. W. Coleman and Mrs. J. L. Moore of this County. He enlisted in the army in 1875 and served his first term of enlistment in Texas and later on was stationed at Fort Lyon, Colo. and Fort Russell, Wyoming, also at Plattsburg, N. Y. His regiment was sent to the Philippine Islands in 1898, where he participated in the battle of Manilla and after two years of continuous service in the Philippines and Sulu Islands, he was returned to the States, but later on was returned to the Philippines where he rounded out his thirty years of service under his country's flag and was retired in 1903.

Liberty Church

The Senior B.Y.P.U. of Liberty Baptist Church is engaged in a spirited contest for new members. The colors are blue and gold with Henry Caldwell as captain of the blues and Miss Jessalyn Hancock, captain of the golds. The contest will run for one month and conclude with a Valentine Social in which the loosers will entertain the winners. As soon as the increase in membership will justify it is intended to organize another B.Y.P.U.

"Our Unobserved Sins" and "If I were Sixteen" are the sermon subjects for next Snnday, the latter being a friendly talk to youth and the parents and friends of youth.

Appomattox has the reputation of being a church going town and community and the revival fires are burning low. The spiritual epidemic is subsiding, the congregations at all our Sunday Schools and churches will surely increase.

The Worker's Council and the W.M.S. of Liberty Baptist Church held lively and helpful meetings during the week.

The Y. W. A. of which Miss Gladys Smith is president, with all new recruits will meet with Mrs. W. M. Thompson next Tuesday at 3 p. m.

We are ready to serve you in the building the Men's Shop Inc use to have next door to Dru. Store. Call to see our brand new line.
